"THE CULTIVATION OF HUMAN VALUE ALONE IS EDUCATION"

HUMAN VALUE QUARTERS PRESENTS PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION ON "STREET CHILDREN"

SUBJECT: INVITATION FOR PARTICIPATION.

Respected Sir,

AMITY SCHOOL OF COMMUNICATION is conducting a photography competition in accordance with Human Value Quarters on the theme: 'STREET CHILDREN'. Amity Human Values Quarters is celebrated every year to inculcate human values amongst the students along with academics, it aims to provide holistic education to the students to grow as enhanced, principled and complete human beings of tomorrow... keeping in mind the interest of students in photography and the concept of "we nurture talent", the aim of photographic competition is to create HUMAN VALUE with their art of photography and to know a little more about these street kids and their struggling life. It is an effort to bring a smile on these children's face by this means...

It gives us immense pleasure to invite university/college/institute to take part in this competition. We look forward to your active participation to make the event a success and memorable one.

Last date of submission of photographs: 13th. March.2012

Date for Photographic Competition: 22nd. March.2012

Venue: J-1 Block; 4th floor, Activity Room
